

9 MAART 2019

The background of the poster is a painting of a church facade. It features a large, ornate archway with a bell hanging from it. To the right is a tall, brick bell tower with a green dome and three arched windows. The painting is in a style that uses a limited color palette of earthy tones and greens. At the bottom of the painting, a group of small figures is visible, suggesting a scene of people gathered outside the church.
